Notes for REUBEN KIRKLAND:

WILL OF RUEBEN KIRKLAND

In the name of God, Amen, I, Rueben Kirkland of Barnwell District in the State of South Carolina, being weak of body, but of perfect sound mind and memory, thanks to god for the same, calling to mind the mortality of the body, knowing it is appointed once for man to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, principally, and first of all, I do give my Soul to God who gave it to me at first, my body to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors. Nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching my worldly goods it hath pleased God to bless me with this life, I do give my soul to God who gave it to me at first, my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors. Nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same by the mighty power of God, and as touching my worldly goods it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I do give and bequeath in manner and form following, that is to say.....

First, I lend to my beloved wife, Mary Kirkland, all my land and plantation whereon I now live and my grist mill, also six negroes, Isaac, Jack, Kifsah, Big Hannah and her child Prince, and Lettice and her child Monday..Also one horse which she liked best, as much household and kitchen furniture and plantation tools and as much of other stock as she wishes to keep at her own disposal during her natural life.....

Second, I give and bequeath to my son, George Kirkland , one negro wench named Sue and all her children. Also one negro wench named Little Hanna and one negro boy named Nelson.

Third, I give and bequeath unto my son, Robert Kirkland, one negro boy named Jack and one girl named Kefsiah after my wifes lifetime, also one negro man Sandy and one negro boy named Dengrane.....

Fourth, I give and bequeath unto my son, Rueben Kirkland, one negro woman named Annie and her three children, also one negro named Peter and Big Hannah's child named Jerry.....

Fifth, I give and bequeath to my son, William Kirkland, my blacksmith tools and six negroes, Penelope, Jim, Mark, Annie, also after the decease of my wife I give Isaac and Dennis.....

Sixth, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Sarah Brabham, one negro woman named Biner. After the decease of my wife I give Lettice and her child Monday, Big Hannah and her child named Prince.....

Seventh, I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Lydia Thurston, two negroes called Carr and Phyllis.....

Eighth, I give and bequeath unto my two sons, George Kirkland and William Kirkland, my wagon and wagon gears.....

Ninth, after the decease of my wife I give to Robert Kirkland and William Kirkland the land and plantation I now live on. Supposed eight hundred acres to be divided by a line running from Matthew Maye Corner opposite the Ward Plantation, then running by walnut tree in the field where the old house stood and a direct line to the marsh of the mill pond. Robert to hold the lower part and William to hold all of the upper part, except the profits of the grist mill which is to divided equally between the two, and my gin I wish to continue for the benefit of my beloved wife, Mary Kirkland.....

Tenth, I give and bequeath unto my son, Rueben Kirkland, my land and plantation lately purchased from James Price, adjoining himself with Thurston Matther, Maye L. McAyer and Robert Chitty.....

Eleventh, I give and bequeath unto my son, William, the mare called Liz and two calves, two sows and pigs and ten head of stock hogs and one bed and furniture.....

Twelfth, the remainder of my estate not already bequeathed to be equally divided between my six children share and share alike, except Robert, Rueben and William , is each of them to pay out of their share one hundred dollars each. I do likewise appoint my three sons, Robert, Rueben and William, to be my sole executors to this will and testament. My witness thereof I have set my hand and seal this 27th day of March in the year of our Lord 1822.....

Signed, sealed and published and delivered by the above named Ruebeln Kirkland Sr. to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence have hereunto subscribed as witness to the same.

Rueben Kirkland Sr..
