Obituary in the 18 JAN 1895 issue of "The Covington Times" reads:

"An Old Landmark Gone. Judge William T. Acree breathed his last at his home near town about eleven o'clock Monday morning last. He had a severe attack of paralysis several years ago, since which time he has been feeble in health. On Monday he had a second stroke which resulted in his death in about one hour. Deceased was about 80 years of age and one of the old land marks of this section, having settled in Covington County when quite a young man. He served one term each as probate judge, circuit clerk, and superintendent of education and also represented the county in legislature. He was a member of the Baptist church and a Mason, his remains being passed away with Masonic honors on Tuesday. A large crowd witnessed the impressive ceremonies at the grave."

From the 1860 Agricultural Census of Covington County, Alabama p39-W.T.
